Wayfinder: Step in to your Rangatira space

(ie. lead in a mana enhancing way, stand with others, foster success is succession)

Wayfinder: Call the island to you

(ie. become your purpose, read the signs, move from stillness)

When a leader is committed to becoming a culturally responsive leader they generate relational trust and respect. This can't be accomplished in a distant, disembodied and abstract way – it's about being in the relationship. Being an open and willing learner and listener.

Embrace the unknown

(ie. discover the opportunity in adversity, gather your grit, flow with change)

"leadership development journey that explores stepping into the unknown, developing sharper powers of observation, being more comfortable with uncertainty and finding new and better ways to tackle situations, relying not only on rational thinking, but also on the much broader sets of intelligence with which each of us is endowed."

Ka pū ka hao comes from the whakatauki "Ka pū te ruha, ka hao te rangatahi" (as an old net withers, a new one is made). It acknowledges the importance of wisdom, leadership and guidance as well as the important energy and strength of youth coming through and leading in a different way.
